

About Slackin' idle

Slackin' idle is a skate/pop punk band from the Montreal suburbs that shared a love for bands like Blink-182, Sum 41, Green Day, NOFX and many more. With that love for music, Slackin' idle started covering songs from all those bands, and not too long after started writing songs of their own! With no intention of stopping, and no shortage of tom foolery and shenanigans, Lennon O'Donnell, Michel Balazic Ortiz, and Nine McIntyre will continue to find the fun in life and in music and hopefully share it with as many people as we can!!

Shows/experience

We've played dozens of shows locally, in Montreal, growing with each show! We've also played a number of cities in Ontario such as, Toronto, Hamilton, Guelph and Kingston. And will continue to push further from home
